Advertising in the professional press

The A-Fond publishing house was founded in 1995 with the aim to inform architects, designers and construction engineers on the developments in their professional field. Its first and main publication is PROJECT RUSSIA – a bi-lingual journal on Russian architecture and design. During the 10 years of its existence, PROJECT RUSSIA has become the leading journal in the field and is read by virtually all architects and designers in Russia.

In 2001, the development of the market has led to the founding of two new journals:

PROJECT CLASSIC is a magazine about classics in architecture and design. The journal is set up to enhance the status of classical themes – to bring the taste of the public for classical design on a higher level by addressing professional architects and designers.

PROJECT RUSSIA only concerns Russian architecture. PROJECT International is meant to inform professional architects and designers about developments abroad. The journal shows the latest projects, buildings and items designed by the world's leading architects and designers. The journal is distributed exclusively among the paid subscribers of PROJECT RUSSIA.

Together, these three journals not only cover the whole area of architecture and design (local and global, contemporary and historical), but also offers a great variation of advertisement possibilities:

PROJECT RUSSIA, with the highest circulation and the broadest reach among professional architects and designers, covers the whole area from construction materials to furniture. There is a strict division between editorial and advertisement pages.

PROJECT CLASSIC focuses on classical architecture and design and is especially suitable for firms offering products in this area, such as 'classic' collections of interior fittings and furniture. There are ample possibilities for combining editorial content and information on design products.

PROJECT International shows the latest in architecture and design and offers advertisement possibilities for design brands to publish their collections in 8–16 page inserts.

Distribution

The journals are meant for professionals working in the field of design of buildings, interiors and the urban environment. They are distributed with the aim to reach people who make choices on materials and products to be used in construction, finishing and refurbishment.

In the course of its existence, our publishing house has built up a unique database. All subscribers receive a questionnaire which they are asked to fill out and send back. Thus the database contains data about the professional status of the subscribers, their working place, the amount and volume of realized buildings, the kind of products they are interested in etc. Advertisers have the possibility to use PROJECT RUSSIA's databases depending on the volume of their advertisement contract.

Regional journals

PROJECT RUSSIA has partnerships with various regional architectural journals. As a result, we can offer you the possibility to promote your products to a regional audience.

ПРО/ПРОЕКТ СИБИРЬ PROJECT SIBERIA. Located in the capital of Siberia Novosibirsk, this journal is distributed from Vladivostok to the Ural.

АСС/ПРОЕКТ ВОЛГА PROJECT VOLGA. The journal ASS has been published in Samara for over 8 years. Four years ago, it has changed its name to PROJECT VOLGA and covers the whole Volga region – one of the most prosperous of Russia.

ПРОЕКТ БАЙКАЛ PROJECT BAIKAL. A new magazine dedicated to the architecture of Siberia is distributed from Vladivostok to the Ural. The headquarters is located in Irkutsk.

If you are interested in advertising in these or other Russian regions, please contact our office and we can give you details on circulation and advertisement prices.
